Songs In The Key Of Life Stevie Wonder

Those who have listened closely to Stevie Wonder's very first hit remember a question that has just now been fully answered:

"What key, what key?" asked the frantic bandleader's voice on the opening to "Fingertips, Part II."

"The key of life!" is the reply some fifteen years later, the eternal message of Stevie Wonder's sixteenth and finest LP "Songs In The Key Of Life."

Those who have a head for higher mathematics will also recall that Stevie's last two albums — released less than a year apart — each won five Grammy Awards and sold over one million copies. Simple arithmetic leads one to the possibility that "Songs In The Key Of Life" — over two years in the making, consisting of two solid LPs plus an EP bonus — could win an unprecedented 10 Grammy Awards and sell well over two million copies.

Those who number themselves, without question, among the ranks of tried and true Stevie Wonder fans — and that includes just about everybody these days — will know, without asking, that "Songs In The Key Of Life" adds up to the most massive and awesome work of pop music in the 1970's.

There are 21 tunes in all. Some are out-and-out love and/or lust songs, the kind fans of "You Are The Sunshine Of My Life" and "Boogie On Reggae Woman" will frenzy for. Others are songs with social significance a la "You Haven't Done Nothing" and "Living For The City." Still others like earlier hits "Higher Ground" and "Heaven Help Us All" bear strong religious overtones. But along with the universal appeal of all these facets of Wonder the ace songwriter, "Songs In The Key Of Life" also unveils tunes that are much more personal than his past work — songs that give us our clearest insights yet into the mind of Stevie Wonder the human being.

The Wonder of Religious Experience opens the album with Stevie playing the radio preacherman, asking us to send our donations to Box L-O-V-E. It's followed by a sensuous rocker urging us to "Have A Talk With God" when things get tough. And on "Saturn" (one of the songs contained on the bonus EP), Stevie creates a stunning science fiction paradise for all mankind, where the religion of the universe is peace and love.

The Wonder of Social Consciousness is also introduced on the very first side of the superalbum. "Village Ghetto Land" is a keen observation of a poverty situation. On the brighter side, "Sir Duke" is a happy Dixie-out-landish celebration of the black pioneers in American music: Basie, Ellington, Armstrong and Fitzgerald. "Pastime Paradise" deals in the error of living in the past and the benefits of looking towards a more promising future. And "Black Man" is probably the first history lesson ever set to a disco beat — complete with a funky pop quiz at the close of class. Black Studies programs all over the nation will never be quite the same!

"Ngiculela/Es Una Historia/I Am Singing" captures the interaction of African, Latin and American sounds and rhythms through consecutive Zulu, Spanish and English translations of the identical musical idea. The result is pure musical pleasure.

The Wonder of Pure Love doesn't come on through until the opening of Side Two. But then the romance flows like there's no stopping it. And with Wonder, there isn't!

"Knocks Me Off My Feet" is a rather energetic concept set against a relatively serene musical theme. But the contrast is indeed a knock-out. In "Summer Soft," love and nature intertwine as the heart changes with the seasons. "Ordinary Pain" is a song of break-up, a two-part male/female blues that brings the form to new heights of passion and power.

"If It's Magic" is the album's sole harmonica/vocal solo — and an even more hypnotic piece because of its unique position. "As" blends the eternity of "always" and the finality of "until" into one supreme statement of devotion everlasting. Meanwhile,

"Another Star" looks at fidelity when the two lovers involved are not so ideally matched in their sense of commitment.

"Ebony Eyes" is delivered in the style of a beauty pageant theme songs, celebrating the beauty of womanhood in its purest form. But "All Day Sucker" details the plight of manhood when she takes herself too seriously and doesn't let you get too close.

We get really close to The Wonder of Stevie Himself in five songs that round out this masterful collection of music.

The first of these personal songs in an instrumental — a form Stevie hasn't made much use of since his "Fingertips" days. "Contusion" brings us back to that fateful day in 1973 when an August car crash near Durham, North Carolina, almost took Stevie's life. It takes us all there, closer than mere words ever could.

"I Wish" describes Stevie's bad boy youth in a very brilliant first person. "Isn't She Lovely?" is a father beaming with pride over his first daughter, Aisha Zakiya (meaning "life and intelligence") while "Joy Inside My Tears" concerns the woman who, for Stevie, makes parental joy possible — his wife Yolanda.

"Easy Goin' Evening (My Mama's Call)" is the works! closing theme, also an instrumental, which allows us to glimpse the relationship between a younger Wonder and his mother. Stevie's ability to speak as clearly with melody as with words is the key to the song's effectiveness.

The overall key to appreciating the total scope of Wonder's latest musical triumph is indeed "life." It's the one key that unlocks all doors. With awareness and faith, with love and insight. Through the magic of the key of life, all problems open up to their ideal solutions.

Happily, the key of life is one we all can play and sing in. At least with Stevie Wonder's "Songs In The Key Of Life" there to show us how.

"I've never considered myself an orator nor a politician, only a person who is fortunate enough, thanks to all of you, to become an artist given a chance to express the way he feels and hopefully the feelings of many other people. It is to me a fact that Stevie Wonder is that temporary someone of myself even though we have come to know each other very well and realized because of who he is, the many doors that have been opened may have been closed to myself, Stevland Morris. It is important that you do note permanently in your mind that I do take not a second for granted. For I do believe it is that Stevie Wonder is the necessary vehicle on which Stevland Morris must be carried on his mission to spread love mentalism. In every album that I have and shall do, it is not my goal for that to be better than that and the next to succeed the others, but only that I do and give the best I can at the time of my doing and giving and that only happens because of the dis- or satisfaction that made me want to be a better someone."

"Songs In The Key Of Life" is only a conglomerate of thoughts in my subconscious that my Maker decided to give me the strength, the love + love - hate = love energy making it possible for me to bring to my conscious an idea. An idea to me is a formed thought in the subconscious, the unknown and sometimes sought for impossibles, but when believed strong enough, can become a reality. So let it be that I shall live the idea of the song and use its words as my sight into the unknown, but believe positive tomorrow and I shall so when in evil darkness smile up at the sun and it shall to me as if I were a pyramid give me the key in which I am to sing, and if it is a key that you too feel, may you join and sing with me. My mind's heart must be polygamous and my spirit is married to many and my love belongs to all.

*There are people who have let the problems of today
Lead them to conclude that for them life is not the way
But every problem has an answer and if yours you cannot find
You should talk it over to Him
He'll give you peace of mind
When you feel your life's too hard Just go have a talk with God*

*Many of us feel we walk alone without a friend Never communicating with the One who lives within Forgetting all about the One who never ever lets you down
And you can talk to Him anytime He's always around

The first system of the musical score for 'I Wish' consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in a key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. It features a melody with eighth and quarter notes, and rests. The piano accompaniment provides a harmonic foundation with chords and moving lines in both the right and left hands. Chord diagrams for Ebm7 and Ab7 are provided above the vocal line.

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. It includes the instruction 'To Coda' at the end of the system. The musical notation and chord diagrams (Ebm7, Ab7) are consistent with the first system.

Ebm7

— Do do — do do — do do do do do do do, —

The third system features a vocal line with a 'do' solfège exercise. The piano accompaniment continues with the same harmonic pattern. A chord diagram for Ebm7 is shown above the vocal line.

The fourth system concludes the piece with a 'Da Capo' (D. S.) instruction and a 3/4 time signature change, leading to the final 'do' solfège exercise. A chord diagram for Ebm7 is shown above the vocal line.

SUMMER SOFT

S. Wonder

*Summer soft
Wakes you up with a kiss to start the morning off
In the midst of herself playing Santa Claus
She brings gifts through her breeze*

*Morning rain
Gently plays her rhythms on your window pane
Giving you no clue of when she plans to change
To bring rain or sunshine*

*And so you wait to see what she'll do
Is it sun or rain for you
But it breaks your heart in two
When you find it's October
And she's gone
And she's gone
Summer's gone
Taking with her summer's play*

*Winter wind
Whispers to you that he wants to be your friend
But not waiting for your answer he begins Forcing dangers 'way with his breeze*

*Morning snow
Plans to have a winter ball for you to throw
But just where or when he never lets you know
If it's snow or clear days you'll find*

ORDINARY PAIN

S. Wonder

When by the phone
In vain you sit
You very soon in your mind realize that it's not just
An ordinary pain in your heart

When you by chance
Go knock on her door
Walkin' away you're convinced that it's much more Than just an ordinary pain in your heart
It's more than just
An ordinary pain in your heart

When you catch up
But she says goodbye
Hold back your tears and before you start to cry
Say you feel unnecessary pain in your heart

Tell her you're glad It's over in fact
Can she take with her the pain she brought you back Takin' that ordinary pain from your heart
It's more than just
An ordinary pain from your heart

Don't fool yourself
But tell no one else
That it's more than just
An ordinary pain
In your heart
In your heart
In your heart

PART II

You're just a masochistic fool
Because you knew my love was cruel
You never listened when they said
Don't let that girl go to your head
But like a play boy you said no
or - di - nary pain
This little girl's mind you will blow
or - di - nary pain
But then I blew you out the box
or - di - nary pain
When I put my stuff on key and lock
or - di - nary pain
It makes me feel kind of sick
or - di - nary pain
To know love put you in a trick
or - di - nary pain
I knew our love would have to end
or - di - nary pain
The day I made it with your friend
or - di - nary pain
Giving your love to one unreal
or - di - nary pain
Like a big fool I know you feel
or - di - nary pain

But in this love-dovie game
or - di - nary pain
With all its joy there must be pain
or - di - nary pain
But now the time has surely come
or - di - nary pain
This game don't seem like so much fun
or - di - nary pain
You're cryin' big crocodile tears
or - di - nary pain
Don't match the ones I've cried for years
or - di - nary pain
When I was home waiting for you
or - di - nary pain
You were out somewhere doing the do
or - di - nary pain
You know I'd really like to stay
or - di - nary pain
But like you did I've got to play
or - di - nary pain
You're dumb to think I'd let you be
or - di - nary pain
Scott free without some pain from me
or - di - nary pain
I heard your song and took a chance
or - di - nary pain
But to your music I can't dance
or - di - nary pain
Go tell your story 'sob-sad'
or - di - nary pain
About you blowin' what you had
or - di - nary pain
Since one ain't good enough for you
or - di - nary pain
Then do yourself see how you do

ISN'T SHE LOVELY
S. Wonder

Isn't she lovely
Isn't she wonderful
Isn't she precious
Less than one minute old
I never thought through love we'd be Making one as lovely as she
But isn't she lovely made from love

Isn't she pretty
Truly the angel's best
Boy, I'm so happy
We have been heaven blessed
I can't believe what God has done Through us He's given life to one
But isn't she lovely made from love

Isn't she lovely
Life and love are the same
Life is Aisha
The meaning of her name
Londie, it could have not been done Without you who conceived the one
That's so very lovely made from love

*I've always come to the conclusion that 'but' is the way
Of asking for permission to lay something heavy on one's head
So I have tried to not be the one who'll fall into that line
But what I feel inside I think you should know*

*And baby that's you – you – you Made life's his - to - ry
Cause you've brought some joy inside my tears
And you have done what no one thought could be You've brought some joy inside my tears*

To go past yesterday and start living for today I feel that lasting moments are coming far and few between So I should tell you of the happiness that you bring*

First system of musical notation. The vocal line is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment is in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The piano part begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The vocal line has a whole rest in the first measure, followed by a half note G4, a quarter note A4, and a half note B4 in the second measure. The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand.

Second system of musical notation. The vocal line continues with a half note G4, a quarter note A4, and a half note B4 in the third measure, followed by a half note C5 and a quarter note B4 in the fourth measure. The piano accompaniment includes triplets in the right hand. The lyrics "Ngi - cu - le -" are written below the vocal line.

Third system of musical notation. The vocal line has a whole rest in the first measure, followed by a half note G4, a quarter note A4, and a half note B4 in the second measure. The piano accompaniment continues with a rhythmic pattern. The lyrics "la - ria" and "i - ku - sa - de ma - ña - sg - na" are written below the vocal line.

IF IT'S MAGIC

*If it's magic...
Then why can't it be everlasting
Like the sun that always shines
Like the poets endless rhyme
Like the galaxies in time*

*If it's pleasing...
Then why can't it be never leaving
Like the day that never fails
Like on seashores there are shells Like the time that always tells*

*It holds the key to every heart
Throughout the universe
It fills you up without a bite
And quenches every thirst*

*So...
If it's special
Then with it why aren't we as careful
As making sure we dress in style
Posing pictures with a smile
Keeping danger from a child*

*It holds the key to every heart
Throughout the universe
It fills you up without a bite
And quenches every thirst*

*So.....
If it's magic
Why can't we make it everlasting
Like the lifetime of the sun
It will leave no heart undone
For there's enough for everyone*

And the seasons know exactly when to change
Just as kindness knows no shame
Know through all your joy and pain That I'll be loving you always*

The love of me I've left behind

Calypso Feel

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 4/4 time, marked 'Calypso Feel' and 'f' (forte). The piano part features a steady bass line with triplets in the right hand. The vocal part enters with a melodic line, also using triplets. The score includes several guitar chord diagrams: Fm9, Eb13, Dbmaj7, Cm7, Bbm7, and C7+. The vocal part includes the lyrics 'La la la la la' and 'la la la la'. The piano part includes a section marked 'R. H.' (Right Hand) and 'mp' (mezzo-piano), and another section marked '(loco)'. The score concludes with a final piano flourish.

3. You drop by to say
 You're sorry for what went down the other day,
 And if I had some time later in the day to Do something for your love.

Anyone else would say,
 "No that's okay,"
 But maybe by now she'll see things my way,
 And ask me to stay to Do something for her love.

I'm an all day sucker,
 Coming to give something to get nothin'.
 I'm an all day sucker,
 Coming to give something but to get none of your love.
